

TRANSLATION

SAMPLE-7

Examinee: _____ Date: _____

You may use a bilingual dictionary.

-
1. When she fell down there was no one around who could help her get up.
 2. I am headed to Chicago tomorrow morning to visit my parents. Gas prices are low. There's no reason I couldn't go home often.
 3. Did you see Joan last time she came to Carbondale? She looked all over the place for you, but was not able to find you.
 4. It is unfair to have to take three exams, turn in two research papers, and give a presentation during the same week.
 5. They don't pay Teresa a salary that reflects her years of experience.
 6. Upon entering the room, she noticed a funny odor that reminded her of rotten vegetables. The entire house smelled like spoiled tomato juice.
 7. What is your best friend like? Is she from around here? For how long have you known her?
 8. – My boss needs a secretary who can speak English, Spanish, and French.
– I have a friend who can speak all three of those languages.
 9. — Is possible for someone to eat fifty-one eggs in less than five minutes?
— No, I don't think anyone can eat more than thirty-one eggs in five minutes
 10. If I had never met my second ex-wife, I would be $300,000 better off. She really cost me an arm and a leg trying to keep up with her eccentricities.