

Summary of Teaching Evaluations for Luis Gautier
Southern Illinois University, Carbondale

The following summarize key aspects of my teaching evaluations at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale. I have taught introductory and intermediate level courses in economics. Items correspond to those in the evaluation form.

Introduction to Macroeconomics - econ 241

SPRING 2009

In general, taught class effectively	3.9 out of 5
Generally, the course was good	4.1 out of 5
Prepared for class	4.3 out of 5
Organized, presented subject well	4.0 out of 5
Gave examples of complex ideas	4.0 out of 5
Achieved specific course objectives	3.9 out of 5
Available outside of class	4.0 out of 5
Showed interest in course	4.2 out of 5

Intermediate Macroeconomics - econ 341/441

FALL 2008

In general, taught class effectively	4.6 out of 5
Generally, the course was good	4.6 out of 5
Prepared for class	4.7 out of 5
Organized, presented subject well	4.4 out of 5
Gave examples of complex ideas	4.1 out of 5
Achieved specific course objectives	4.2 out of 5
Available outside of class	4.4 out of 5
Showed interest in course	4.9 out of 5

Economics of Social Issues - econ 113

FALL 2007 AND SUMMER 2008 -AVERAGES

In general, taught class effectively	3.10 out of 5
Generally, the course was good	3.30 out of 5
Prepared for class	4.10 out of 5
Organized, presented subject well	3.45 out of 5
Gave examples of complex ideas	3.40 out of 5
Achieved specific course objectives	3.35 out of 5
Available outside of class	3.60 out of 5
Showed interest in course	3.80 out of 5

Introduction to Microeconomics-econ 240

SPRING 2008

In general, taught class effectively	2.5 out of 5
Generally, the course was good	2.9 out of 5
Prepared for class	3.5 out of 5
Organized, presented subject well	2.7 out of 5
Gave examples of complex ideas	2.6 out of 5
Achieved specific course objectives	3.1 out of 5
Available outside of class	3.0 out of 5
Showed interest in course	3.3 out of 5